National Federation of Telecom Employees [BSNL]

[Regd. No. 4906 dated 17.9.2007]

Constitution

1. Name

The name of the union shall be "National Federation of Telecom Employees BSNL", hereinafter referred to as "Union".

2. Registration

The Federation shall be registered under the Indian Trade Union Act.

3. Headquarters

The headquarters of the Federation shall be located at the headquarters of the BSNL now at New Delhi at C-4/1, Bangla Sahib Road, New Delhi - 110001.

4. Aims and Objects

- a) To safeguard and promote the interests, rights and liberties of the employees of BSNL.
- b) To ameliorate and promote social, cultural and educational uplift of the members.
- c) To ventilate and secure redressal of the grievances of the members.
- d) To provide for such legal assistance as may be necessary.
- e) To render efficient service to the nation by inculcating a new work culture conducive to a consumer friendly environment and actively participate in building a socialist society.
- f) To work with dedication to keep BSNL profitable and fight against policies that seek to undermine it.
- g) To coordinate activities with other organisations in Telecom sector and join the mainstream of other PSUs in their ef-ports to keep them economically viable and prevent their privatisation.

- h) To conduct one or more journals on behalf of the Union.
- i) To do all other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any one of them.

5. Structure

It shall comprise Circle/SSA/Local Branches in respective units of management of BSNL.

The jurisdiction of the Branches shall be co-terminus with Circle/SSA in the respective jurisdiction.

To settle intra-union rivalry, if any, jurisdiction of this Federation shall be Delhi only.

6. Functioning of the Union

The Union shall be unitary in character and shall function on the principle of a federal structure comprising all categories of non-supervisory staff of BSNL. It will ensure autonomy of all cadres insofar as their specific demands are concerned, differences, if any, being resolved by consensus. It will carry forward the traditions of autonomy of all groups of employees enjoyed hitherto in NTFE.

7. Membership

- a) i) Employees of BSNL belonging to non-executive categories (erstwhile Group C and D of DoT) will be eligible for membership.
  - ii) Non-employees of BSNL, elected to any office of the Union shall be honorary members during the tenure of their office subject to the provisions of Section 22 of the Indian Trade Unions Act, 1926.

The managing bodies at various levels shall be competent to suspend, adopt a no confidence motion against or censure its office-bearers or members under its jurisdiction.

Before taking any disciplinary action against any office-bearer, the person concerned shall be furnished with a list of charges against him in writing, who shall submit his defence within 14 days from the date of receipt of the charges, failing which a decision may be taken ex-parte.

No resolution of no-confidence, expulsion, etc. against any member or office-bearer of the Union shall be passed except by two-thirds majority vote of members attending the meeting. However, a resolution of censure can be adopted by simple majority. Any office-bearer against whom any disciplinary action has been taken shall have the right to appeal to the authority higher than the punishing authority and a final right of appeal to the National Conference.

A disciplinary action like suspension, etc. shall be suo moto reviewed by the following Conference before holding the election of office-bearers. If the Conference reiterates a decision, the affected member shall have the right to make fresh appeal as provided for in the preceding paragraph. If no decision is taken by Biennial Conference the debarring from office, suspension, etc. shall be deemed to have lapsed.

b) Failure to hold Conference

(i) Circle Branch : The Secretary General shall have the power to ensure that the annual conference is held in due time at Circle level.

(ii) Local and District/S.S.A. Branch : The Circle Secretary shall have the power to ensure that District Branch conferences are held in due time.

Note : In case the SSA or Branch Secretary fails to hold respective Annual Conference as provided for in the constitution, the Circle Secretary shall notify the unit concerned to hold it and if he fails to hold it within a month of receipt of such notice without sufficient justification, the Circle Secretary shall be competent to hold the conference. The SG may intervene in case the Circle Secretary fails to ensure holding of conference at local level.

In case of Circle Union the Secretary General shall exercise the above power.

(c) Failure to hand over records and accounts : In case an office-bearer does not hand over the accounts or the funds of the Union and all efforts of persuasion fail, the Executive Committee shall take appropriate action.

(d) Non-observance of Union Decisions and Policies: The Secretary General shall, with the approval of the Secretariat, notify to the Executive of the affiliated union (Circle/SSA/Local level as the case may be) about the anti-union activities of office-bearers of the relevant body.

18. Disputes in elections

(a) Efforts will be made to elect broad-based set of office-bearers and executive committee representing all views and categories with a view to give a united leadership to the workers.

(b) In settlement of disputes in elections at various levels, methods of conciliation will be adopted. If the dispute is admitted and settlement is not reached, election will be set aside and another session of the conference will be held to elect new office-bearers. Delegates who participated in the annual conference, or were eligible to participate, alone will participate and no new election of delegates will be held. The notice for the Conference will be issued by the disputed Secretary or Ex-Secretary as is decided mutually or by next higher authority within 30 days (15 days for Branch) of decision of the dispute. In no case an ad hoc committee will be constituted to settle the disputes.

In case the Secretary authorised to hold the Conference fails to hold it, the authority which decides the dispute will be competent to hold the conference. Subject to the above, the following procedure will be adopted at various levels:

(i) National Conference : If a dispute arises about the office-bearers of the Federation and SG fails to resolve it, the Secretary General will convene a meeting of the General Secretaries of the affiliated Unions to decide the issue. The decision of the General Secretaries shall be binding till the next National Conference which shall be held within a period of twelve months of such decision.

(ii) Circle Conference : If a dispute arises in the Union Conference, the National Secretariat shall give the decision. An appeal against the decision shall lie with the National Executive Committee or the National Conference, whichever meets earlier.

(iii) SSA and Local Branches : All disputes at SSA and Local levels shall be settled by the General Secretary in consultation with its Secretariat. Appeals against the decision of the union Secretariat will lie with the Executive or Conference whichsoever meets earlier.

In case an appeal is made to Federation, the Secretariat shall have the right to intervene and its decision shall be final.

If within 60 days of the receipt of a dispute the Union fails to settle it, the National Secretariat shall be competent to intervene in disputes at SSA/Local Branch level and settle the same within 30 days. The Secretariat shall refer to the respective higher managing bodies their decision for ratification. Subject to the decision of the Federation as stated above, the office-bearers and/or Executive Committee recognised by the Union will be deemed as the authorised office-bearers. The Executive body or the office-bearers holding charge of the records and funds of the Branch Union shall hand over charge of the same to the Executive body or office-bearers so recognised by the Circle Union.

- (c) Dispute in election of delegates. Normally the list of the delegates submitted by a Branch Secretary shall be admitted. On appeal decision will be taken by the house on merits. Appeal will be to the conference.

19. Amendments to the Constitution

Notice of amendments to the Constitution shall be given to the Secretary General 30 days before the commencement of the National Conference.

A notice of 21 days shall be given to all delegates to the National Conference (through the Circle Unions) and publication in the journals for any amendment to the Constitution.

Amendments to the Constitution can be made only by the National Conference by a two-third majority of votes of the delegates present and clear majority of the total strength of the National Conference, and the same are to be informed to the Registrar of Trade Unions, Delhi and it will not come into effect until approved and registered by the Registrar of Trade Unions.

20. Dissolution

- (a) For merger of the Federation with similar organisations of Telecom employees as provided in the Trade Union Act.
- (b) The dissolution of the Federation can only be decided by the National Conference specifically convened for this purpose after giving one month's notice and by a majority of three-fourths of the delegates and after making necessary arrangements for the disposal of the assets and liabilities.

21. Interpretation of the Constitution

This Constitution shall be construed with reference to provisions of the Trade Union Act, 1926. Where the Act furnishes no guidance for the interpretation of any particular Article, the National Executive Committee shall be empowered to give interpretation of such Articles. This decision shall be binding unless revoked by the National Conference.

The Secretary General also can give tentative interpretation of the Constitution in case of emergency which shall be binding unless revoked by the National Executive or the National Conference.

Where the Constitution of the union in Part II, III & IV is silent on any issue, it will be interpreted by the Circle, SSA/District/Branch on the basis of provisions of Part I.

21 (A) Code of Discipline

The union shall abide by the code of discipline.
